7. The competition committee makes a decision in a form of the minutes.

Chapter III. The criteria for assessment and the rule for appealing a decision

Article 14. The criteria for evaluating applicants

1. The competition committee evaluates the applications observing the criteria determined by the charter herein.
2. The competition consists of three stages:
 - a) The first stage: verification of the documents (English language test if necessary);

- b) The second stage: an interview;
 - c) The third stage: a trial lecture (if necessary).
3. On the first stage, the competition committee verifies the documents submitted by the applicants. If some documents are missing or misleading information is presented, the competition committee shall have the right to make a decision about dismissing an applicant.
 4. On the first stage, the applicants are evaluated through points in accordance with the evaluation form (annex 6) with criteria outlined in details.
 5. If on the first stage the applicant will not receive more than 4 points, i.e. he/she does not meet the competition requirements, he/she is not allowed on the second stage (the final point for each applicant is calculated through an arithmetical mean of the points assigned by each member of the committee);
 6. On the first stage, the competition committee also verifies if the applicant has the English language certificate and its validity. Afterwards, the committee makes a decision about organizing the English language test for the applicant. The committee shall also have the right to question the validity of the submitted English language certificate and require the applicant to retake the English language test. The member of the committee, the English language specialist, organizes the English language exam and all related issues.
 7. Upon completion of the first stage of the applicant evaluation, the committee makes a decision about admitting the applicant on the second stage (an interview) by calculating the total sum of the applicant's points and if necessary about conducting a trial lecture. The decision is registered in the minutes of the committee meeting.
 8. The committee sets the date and the time for conducting an interview. The schedule of the interviews is published 1 (one) calendar day before the interview.
 9. On the second stage of the competition, an interview with an applicant is conducted in the English language aiming at verifying the information indicated by an applicant in an application form.
 10. The applicant must arrive on an interview on time. If he/she is late, the committee shall have the right not to admit the applicant on an interview, dismiss him/her from the competition or conduct an interview later on the same day. In case of an acceptable reason (a business trip, illness etc.) the second stage of the competition can be organized online.
 11. In case the applicant does not attend the interview or refuses to do so, he/she shall be dismissed from the competition.
 12. The committee shall have the right to make a decision about making a video or an audio recording of the second stage;
 13. The interview with an applicant is conducted in the English language. The member of the committee, the English language specialist evaluates the level of the applicant's English language knowledge.
 14. Upon completion of the interview the committee organizes an open voting to make a decision either "successful" or "additional lecture is required".
 15. The applicant shall conduct a trial lecture in English.
 16. In case the applicant misses a trial lecture or refuses to conduct it, he/she shall be dismissed from the competition.
 17. The competition committee shall have the right to make a decision about making a video or an audio recording of the third stage;
 18. On the second and the third stages, the successful candidate is revealed by an open voting upon the decision of the majority of the committee members. The results of the interview and a trial lecture are registered in the minutes as the conclusion of the committee.

Article 15. Decision-making

1. In case the applicants have equal points, the applicants who have preliminarily declared their consent to sign an affiliate agreement with the teaching university, shall have the advantage in the process of the decision-making.
2. After the procedures regarded by the charter herein are finalized, the competition committee makes a decision about announcing the successful candidate through summarizing the results of the competition committee. The decision shall be made based on the results of the evaluation of the submitted documentation, an interview and a trial lecture that will be recorded in the minutes of the committee meeting.
3. After the applicants are evaluated, the voting takes place. The candidate who will receive the highest points and the biggest amount of votes on the first and the second stages (the results of the third stage will be also considered if applicable) will be considered the successful candidate for a specific position. The number of the votes of each member of the committee equals to the number of the announced positions. The competition committee must justify in details the ground of the made decision in the minutes.
4. In case the applicants have equal points and no additional vacant academic position is available, the committee must organize an open vote again to reveal the winner.
5. After the final results are available, the committee prepares the final/concluding minutes about the successful candidates.
6. The competition is considered failed if none of the applications have been submitted or the committee did not manage to select a candidate.
7. The concluding minutes of the committee is approved by the rector's order. The rector's order together with the concluding minutes will be published on the official webpage of the teaching university within no later than two business days of its issue.

Article 16. The rule for appealing the competition procedure and its results

1. In case the competition committee violates the requirements set by the rule herein, the applicant shall have the right to submit an appeal/complaint at the procedure committee within 3 (three) days of such a violation. After the deadline is passed, the appeal will not be accepted.
2. The submitted appeal/complaint shall include the following requisites:
 - a) The name of the competition committee;
 - b) The name, surname, address, telephone number of the complainant;
 - c) The status of the complainant;
 - d) The description of the violation;
 - e) The justified demand of the complainant;
 - f) The signature of the complainant, the date and the time.
3. The procedure committee registers the complaints/appeals and ensures the information is passed to the competition committee on time. The complainant will receive the certificate where the date and the time of receiving the appeal by the committee will be indicated. The procedure committee must review the appeal/complaint within 3 (three) days of receipt of the appeal/complaint and make a decision to uphold the appeal, to reject it or do not review it at all.
4. If the complaint/appeal is made about the unbiasedness of a specific member of the committee, the issue is discussed excluding the affected member. If the unbiasedness of more than the half of the committee members is questioned, the rector makes the decision about substituting these people.

Article 17. Reconducting the competition

1. If the announced vacant positions are not filled or in case the competition is declared failed, the competition can be reconducted on the ground of the rector's order.

Article 18. Final provisions

1. The charter herein becomes effective once approved by the academic council of the teaching university;
2. Any amendments/changes in the charter herein shall be made by the resolution of the academic council;
3. The full documentation of the competition committee is transferred to the office of the teaching university after the competition is finished. Upon the applicant's written request, the documents can be returned. The copies of the documents are retained by the office and the archive department.
